

Making Sense of Memory Loss

FREE 3-Part Series | 2-3pm
November 20 and 27 and December 20

Presented by Sheri Fairman, a certified Positive Approach to Care Mentor and owner of Dementia Care Solutions, LLC

Older adults, adult children and care partners are invited to attend a free educational series on memory loss and positive dementia care solutions hosted by The Courtyard at Oshkosh Assisted Living and Memory Care community.

Attendees will laugh, learn and leave with a better sense of how to care for loved ones with memory loss and themselves.

Kindly RSVP with Melisa
at 920-969-8020.

THE  at OSHKOSH
Courtyard
ASSISTED LIVING & MEMORY CARE

thecourtyardatoshkosh.com

Making Sense of Memory Loss

Presented by Sheri Fairman, Positive Approach to Care Mentor

This educational series is free and open to the public – attend one, two or all three!

Light refreshments served and tours available.

RSVP with Melisa at 920-969-8020 or mellingson@encorecares.com.

Can Happy Holidays and Dementia Co-exist?

Monday, November 20, 2-3pm

The holidays bring joy and stress. People living with dementia experience the season quite differently. Learn how simple adjustments can result in a merrier experience for all.

When is Forgetfulness Cause for Concern?

Monday, November 27, 2-3pm

Discover the difference between normal age-related memory loss and dementia. Find out more about the causes of memory loss, how to improve memory, and when forgetfulness is something more serious.

How to Communicate Better with a Loved One Living with Dementia?

Wednesday, December 20, 2-3pm

Good communication is key to meaningful connection. Learn ways to modify your approach and explore new tools to help you improve communication and be a better care partner in the New Year.

We understand. We can help.

The Courtyard at Oshkosh's specially trained care team offers support for residents who have early, mid-stage and advanced Alzheimer's disease and other related dementia.

THE  Courtyard at OSHKOSH
ASSISTED LIVING & MEMORY CARE

3851 Jackson St., Oshkosh, WI 54901
thecourtyardatoshkosh.com